

April 08, 2026

Håfa Adai!

The University of Guam Triton's Call is establishing a list of eligible individuals for the following services:

Managing Editor

Period: May 25, 2026 – December 18, 2026

The Managing Editor is the operational backbone of The Triton's Call. Working in close partnership with the Editor-in-Chief, the Managing Editor is responsible for keeping the newsroom running smoothly. Example of tasks include managing production timelines, coordinating section editors, tracking story assignments, and ensuring the paper is published on schedule.

$14.00 per hour (10 hours weekly)

Editor-in-Chief

Period: May 25, 2026 – December 18, 2026

The Editor-in-Chief sets the editorial vision and strategic direction of the publication, upholds standards of journalistic integrity, and serves as the primary representative of the paper to the university community and the broader public. This is a hands-on leadership role requiring strong communication, editorial judgment, and organizational skills.

$12.50 pr hour (10 hours weekly)

Interested individuals should email the following documents to Tammy Muna at: adat@triton.uog.edu, no later than Monday, April 13, 2026.

1. Resume
2. Business License (Required)

For more information regarding requirements and qualifications, contact Dr. Manny Cruz at: cruz6043@triton.uog.edu.